Avocado prices continue to track above the previous year levels despite relatively solid imports. Last week, avocado shipments from Mexico to the U.S. were 4.4% better than the same week a year ago. Strong avocado demand, however, is likely to support prices this winter. History suggests that the Hass 48 count avocado market should be fairly flat during the first two months of the year. Tomato supplies from Florida remain subpar, last week tracking 38% below 2017. Tomato shipments should improve this winter.
